Are there any current NCPPA members who will recommend you for membership?

_____

As a not-for-profit, member-owned organization, NCPPA is governed and led by its members—for the benefit of its members. It is hoped that all members will gain the knowledge and the desire to help sustain the group by the giving of their time and expertise. New members are not expected to volunteer right away, though all offers are accepted.

In an effort to insure that this group is meeting the needs of all of its members, please tell us at least one way in which the group could serve your needs as a photographer. What can this group do for you? (Please answer on the back of this form.)
